A message from your Coordinator

Hello Friends and Families,

It's nearly halfway through the term and 123 days till Christmas for those of you that are interested.

This week at OSHC we are celebrating Book Week. We have made pom-pom bookmarks, designed book covers and had lengthy conversations about our favourite books.

We have lots more fun and exciting things happening for the last part of the term and we look forward to your children sharing those experiences with you.

Sarah and Annette
